Annual Meeting to Offer Inspiration and Appreciation

Kawartha Conservation will hold its 28th Annual General Meeting on January 17th and everyone is welcome to attend. This year the event will take place at the Galway-Cavendish & Harvey Municipal office on County Road 36 outside of Bobcaygeon. The location of the meetings is rotated from year to year to reach all watershed municipal partners. Previous locations have been the township of Scugog and the City of Kawartha Lakes.

Following a short business meeting, well-known broadcast journalist Bruce Rogers will take on the role of master of ceremonies and will lead attendees through a programme that includes the acknowledgment a significant donation by a local businessman, a presentation featuring the year's activities, and guest speaker Mike Nickerson, author of several books on sustainability. His talk will focus on his latest title Life, Money and Illusion, subtitled 'Living on Earth as if we want to stay'.

The meeting will take place on January 17th in the Galway-Cavendish & Harvey Council chambers, beginning at 7pm. Refreshments and a social time will follow. More information is available by calling 328-2271 ext. 211 and an invitation flyer is available on the authority's website at www.kawarthaconservation.com.

Kawartha Conservation is a watershed-based environmental organization focused on providing abundant clean water within a healthy landscape. It is one of 36 conservation authorities in Ontario providing natural resources management. The Kawartha watershed includes the City of Kawartha Lakes; Township of Scugog; Township of Brock; Municipality of Clarington; Township of Galway-Cavendish & Harvey; and Township of Cavan-Millbrook-North Monaghan.
